Type of Information Collected When you interact with Patrick Thomas, D.C., and the Site, we collect certain information from you. The hardware or software used to collect this information is referred to as the "Application." The Application collects information through your submissions, by itself, and through third parties. The data may be freely provided or collected automatically when using the Site. The type of information the Application collects includes but is not limited to: Name, Telephone Number, Address, Email Address, Usage Data, IP Address, Cookies, and any other information you submit to Patrick Thomas, D.C., through online forms, email, postings, uploads, use of the Site. Any collection or use of this data by the Application, or by the owners of third party services used by the Application, unless stated otherwise, serves to identify users, remember their preferences, and is for the primary purpose of providing the services requested by the user. Failure to provide certain information may make it impossible for Patrick Thomas, D.C., to provide services. You are responsible for any information of third parties obtained, published, or shared by you through this Application, and if you publish or share such data, then you confirm that you have the third party's consent to provide such information.

Processing Data Patrick Thomas, D.C., takes all reasonable and appropriate measures to process your information in a proper manner, and to prevent unauthorized access, disclosure, modification, or unauthorized destruction of the data. However, no website is 100% secure and you should always use caution when using the internet and disclosing personal information online.

Data processing is carried out using computers and/or IT enabled tools following organizational procedures and modes strictly related to the purposes indicated. In addition to the data controller at Patrick Thomas, D.C., in some cases, the Data may be accessible to certain types of persons in charge, involved with the operation of the Site (e.g., administration, sales, marketing, legal, system administration, etc.), or external parties (e.g., third party technical service providers, mail carriers, hosting providers, IT companies, communications agencies, etc.) appointed, if necessary, as data processors by Patrick Thomas, D.C. An updated list of these parties may be requested from Patrick Thomas, D.C. at any time.

Data is processed at Patrick Thomas, D.C.'s offices and in any other places where the parties involved with the processing are located. The information is kept for the time necessary to provide the service requested by you, or stated by the purposes outlined in this document, or as otherwise required by law. You can request at any time that Patrick Thomas, D.C., remove the information.

Use of Collected Information Patrick Thomas, D.C., retains the right to use the information for any lawful purpose it deems appropriate. Unless otherwise required by law, Patrick Thomas, D.C., will treat all information you share with it as non-confidential and non-proprietary. Patrick Thomas, D.C., will utilize such data in accordance with the Terms and this Privacy Policy.

Information concerning you is collected to allow Patrick Thomas, D.C., to contact you, provide its services, improve its products and services, promote Patrick Thomas, D.C., send transactional communications, and for security purposes. To provide better services to you, the information is also used for some of the following purposes: access to third party services' accounts, interaction with external social networks and platforms, SPAM protection, traffic optimization and distribution, contacting the user, remarketing and behavioral targeting, analytics, and displaying content from external platforms.

Third Party Links and Permissions The Site may contain links to and from third party websites, mobile websites, mobile applications, or social media ("Linked Sites"), and may ask for permission to share certain information between Patrick Thomas, D.C., and the Linked Sites. The Linked Sites are not under the control of Patrick Thomas, D.C., and Patrick Thomas, D.C., is not responsible for the contents, policies, terms, or privacy of any Linked Sites, including without limitation any link contained in the Linked Sites or any changes or updates to the Linked Sites. Sharing information with the Linked Sites does not happen automatically, you must explicitly authorize this functionality. Linked Sites that you may be requested to give permission to share Data with include but are not limited to: Dropbox, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, Pinterest, Google, etc. We recommend that you review the terms, conditions, and policies of the Linked Sites before using them or enabling these functionalities.

Third Parties With Whom Information May Be Shared We do not sell your information to third parties for their commercial or marketing purposes. Patrick Thomas, D.C., may, however, disclose data we collect through the Site without notice to you with the following third parties for the following purposes:

Contractors and service providers. If you are a Patrick Thomas, D.C., customer or prospective customer, we may share your information with contractors, subcontractors, service providers, and developers in order to provide the best service possible to you and respond to your questions, and customer service requests. Patrick Thomas, D.C., Affiliates. We may share your information with Patrick Thomas, D.C., affiliates, including but not limited to preferred service providers and advertising/media companies.

Legal Matters. We may share your information with third parties, including law enforcement, in response to legal process or subpoenas and to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal, suspicious, or fraudulent activities involving the Site, you, or Patrick Thomas, D.C. We may share your data with third parties for the purpose of helping Patrick Thomas, D.C. better gather, store, and maintain online information.

International Users The Site is owned, operated, and administered by Patrick Thomas, D.C., from our offices within the United States. If you access the Site from a location outside the United States, you do so at your own risk and initiative and with the understanding that information may be collected from you and stored as a result of your use of the Site while in another country whose privacy laws may be different from, and less protective than, those of the United States.

Rights of Users You may, at any time, contact the data controller to learn whether your information has been collected and stored. You may request information regarding how the data was collected, verify its accuracy, or ask for it to be supplemented, updated, corrected, or deleted, or for it to be transformed into an anonymous format or to remove any data held in violation of the law. Requests should be sent to the data controller at the contact information below. Please be advised that the Application used by Patrick Thomas, D.C., does not monitor or identify "do not track" signals or requests from your computer or mobile device, and such signals or requests will not impact the operation of the Site.

Changes to this privacy policy Patrick Thomas, D.C., reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to change the Privacy Policy under which the Site is offered. The most current version of the Privacy Policy will supersede all previous versions. Your use of the Site after changes to the Privacy Policy are posted constitutes your agreement to those changes. Patrick Thomas, D.C., encourages you to periodically review the Privacy Policy to stay informed of any updates.
